New Year's Reflections

My proudest moment was

This year, I want to do more

This year, I want to do less

Last year, I visited

Last year, I went on vacation to

Last year, I spent time with

The skills I developed were

Last year, I bought a new

Last year, I had a meal with

The thing that made me laugh the most was

The thing that made me cry the most was

My kids made me proud because

This year, I want to vacation

Goals for the Year
